Addyi™ REMS Program Knowledge Assessment

Confirm Your Understanding Through Knowledge Assessment (circle your answer)

Confirm that you've read through and understand the Addyi REMS Program Prescriber and Pharmacy Training by completing the Knowledge Assessment questions.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Why is alcohol contraindicated with Addyi? | a) Hepatoxicityb) Teratogenicity | c) Hypotension and syncoped) Hypersensitivity |
| What is the purpose of the Addyi REMS Patient-Provider Agreement Form? | a) For prescribers to counsel patients at the office visit.b) For patient charting | c) For the patient to take home the important safety messagesd) For pharmacy counselinge) All of the above |
| How often must pharmacists counsel patients about the need to avoid alcohol? | a) Neverb) Only if the patient asks about alcohol use | c) With the first prescription onlyd) With every prescription |
| What is the primary counseling message for the patient? | a) Do not drink alcohol while taking Addyi until you know how alcohol affects you.b) Limit your alcohol use while taking Addyi | c) You must not drink alcohol while taking Addyid) Do not drink alcohol at night when you take your daily Addyi |

First Name: Last Name: NPI# DEA#

addyi® (flibanserin)

Print this page and complete Knowledge Assessment. This page, along with the appropriate enrollment form will need to be faxed to the Addyi REMS Support Center (1-844-694-3373) or print, scan and e-mail to AddyiREMSEnroll@AddyiREMS.com to complete certification.

© 2015 Sprout Pharmaceuticals, Inc. Addyi REMS Program Prescriber and Pharmacy Training