Plainsboro, NJ 08536

Dear Sir:

This is in reference to your abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) dated December 30, 2005, submitted pursuant to Section 505(j) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the Act), for Zidovudine Capsules USP, 100 mg.

Reference is made to your amendments dated February 10, February 25, and March 15, 2006.

This ANDA was reviewed under the expedited review provisions of the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR).

The listed drug product (RLD) referenced in your application, Retrovir Capsules of GlaxoSmithKline, has been subject to periods of patent protection. The following patents are currently listed in the agency's publication entitled Approved Drug Products with Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations, the "Orange Book", for this drug product:

U.S. Patent Number	Expiration Date
4,724,232	September 17, 2005
4,818,538	September 17, 2005
4,828,838	September 17, 2005
4,833,130	September 17, 2005
4,837,208	September 17, 2005

With the expiration of each of the above listed patents, we have completed the review of this abbreviated application and have concluded that the drug is safe and effective for use as recommended in the submitted labeling. Accordingly, the application is approved. The Division of Bioequivalence has determined your Zidovudine Capsules USP, 100 mg, to be bioequivalent and therapeutically equivalent to the listed drug (Retrovir® Capsules, 100 mg, of GlaxoSmithKline). Your dissolution testing should be incorporated into the stability and quality control program using the same method proposed in your application.

Under Section 506A of the Act, certain changes in the conditions described in this abbreviated application require an approved supplemental application before the change may be made.

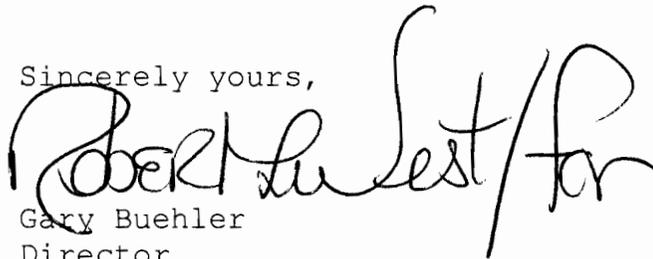

Postmarketing reporting requirements for this abbreviated application are set forth in 21 CFR 314.80-81 and 314.98. The Office of Generic Drugs should be advised of any change in the marketing status of this drug.

Promotional materials may be submitted to FDA for comment prior to publication or dissemination. Please note that these submissions are voluntary. If you desire comments on proposed launch promotional materials with respect to compliance with applicable regulatory requirements, we recommend you submit, in draft or mock-up form, two copies of both the promotional materials and package insert(s) directly to:
